

FLEX

What is Flex?

Flex provides students with opportunities to seek academic support, participate in club meetings, and attend support groups within the school day. These opportunities are embedded within the daily schedule. Teachers identify and schedule students in need of support. Students can schedule time with teachers to attend tutoring during Flex as well. Those in good academic standing can choose to attend a Flex Offering of their choice.

Why Flex?

- Provides students with academic supports to help students to achieve at higher levels
- Students and teachers time to conference and connect within the school day
- Allows for universal support for ALL students
- Creates opportunities for students to attend enrichment activities
- Increases opportunities for students to participated in clubs
- Decreases the need for before and after school interventions

How is Flex Scheduled?

1. Teachers schedule students most in need of academic interventions on a weekly basis
2. Students who have not been scheduled by a teacher to attend an intervention choose which Flex section they will attend the next day in StudentVue
3. The day of Flex, students check their schedules in StudentVue to see where they should report for Flex
